Objectives of CCU Chapel

1. Preaching
   - Generally, Dr. Faust will preach on Tuesdays with the goals of modeling expository biblical messages, connecting with the students, and shaping the spiritual direction and atmosphere on campus.
   - For Thursday chapels, we will invite chapel speakers from the faculty and staff as well as guest speakers to model different styles of preaching and address topics of interest to our campus family.
   - We will seek to include speakers from diverse backgrounds.

2. Worship Leadership
   - Student worship leaders will be organized and overseen by Dr. Ken Read and Titus Chapman. They will be encouraged to lead with creativity and excellence.
   - We will express our worship through different styles of music such as contemporary, gospel, traditional hymns, and other styles that reflect a variety of ethnic perspectives.
   - Whenever possible, we will seek to match the style of chapel worship with seasonal themes and special days on campus.
   - The Center for Urban and Global Outreach will organize Mission Moments with the goal of highlighting missions outreach projects chosen by student leaders and CUGO staff. Outreach offerings will be contributed to these projects.

3. Involvement
   - Faculty, staff and student leaders will be asked to model commitment to worship on campus by attending and participating in chapel on a regular basis.
   - Approximately once each month, couples, men, women, and those from various ethnic backgrounds and age-groups will be recognized as Honored Christian Servants.
   - To create an atmosphere of anticipation and excitement for worship, we will advertise chapels weekly through email on campus. Each semester, brochures will be printed and distributed to students, staff and faculty.

The Mission of CCU Chapel is to:

1. Exalt the Lord with creativity and excellence through music, prayer, and preaching of the Word. John 4:24, Ephesians 5:19, I Timothy 4:13, II Timothy 4:2

2. Encourage, inspire and challenge the student body, faculty and staff to fully follow the Lord. Romans 12:1, 2

3. Provide an opportunity for students to develop their worship leading skills. Psalm 95:6

4. Inform and motivate our entire CCU family to be involved in world evangelism and Christian service. Matthew 28:19
